

Family Responsibility Chart

Make ownership visible so remembering and noticing do not live in one person's head.

Ownership is more than helping

The owner notices, plans, gathers what is needed, completes the task, and asks early if support is required. Assign by capacity, not gender.

☐ Meals and grocery planning

☐ Kitchen cleanup

☐ Laundry

☐ Bathrooms

☐ Floors and shared spaces

☐ School forms and calendars

☐ Appointments and medicines

☐ Transportation

☐ Bills and paperwork

☐ Family and social planning

☐ Pet care

☐ Home and vehicle care

Family check-in day

What 'done' means in our home

Our Family Responsibility Chart

Give one complete responsibility to one owner, then agree on the check-in.

Responsibility	Owner	When / rhythm	Support needed

Accountability Rooted in Christ

Truth and grace belong together.

Our family practices

- ☐ We speak about behavior without attacking identity.
- ☐ We tell the truth when something was missed.
- ☐ We repair harm and make a new plan.
- ☐ We do not use Scripture, authority, or money to control.
- ☐ We ask for help before resentment becomes the system.
- ☐ Adults carry adult responsibilities; children contribute in age-appropriate ways.

One expectation we need to make clearer:

What repair will look like if it is missed:
